

Motions to Dismiss were filed on March 31, 2005 (Doc. #15) and April 5, 2005 (Doc. #16) by Defendants. Plaintiff filed a second Motion for Default Judgment on June 21, 2005 (Doc. #20). On October 13, 2005, Plaintiff filed a Notice of Default (Doc. #21) and on October 24, 2005, Defendants filed a Motion to Strike Notice of Default (Doc. #23). Plaintiff

1 filed a third Motion for Default Judgment on November 2, 2005 (Doc. #24).

2 Statutory Screening of Prisoner Complaints

3 The Court is required to screen complaints brought by prisoners seeking relief
4 against a governmental entity or officer or employee of a governmental entity. 28 U.S.C.
5 § 1915A(a). The Court must dismiss a complaint or portion thereof if the Plaintiff has raised 6 claims that are legally frivolous or malicious, that fail to state a claim upon which relief may 7 be granted, or that seek monetary relief from a defendant who is immune from such relief.
8 28 U.S.C. § 1915A(b)(1),(2). The Court also must dismiss a complaint or portion thereof if 9 Plaintiff fails to exhaust any administrative remedy available to him. 42 U.S.C. § 1997e(a).

10 Complaint

11 The following are named as Defendants to the Complaint: 1) John Evans, Assistant 12 Attorney General, State of Arizona; 2) Christopher Browning, Pima County Superior Court 13 Judge; 3) Barbara LaWall, Pima County Attorney; 4) Members of Grand Jury issuing 14 Indictment 171-GJ-614 in Pima County Superior Court Case No. CR 20032054; 5) State of 15 Arizona; 6) John Does 1-10,000; 7) Jane Does 1-10,000; and 8) ABC Corporations 1-10,000.

16 Plaintiff raises numerous claims in his Complaint challenging his indictment and 17 conviction in the Pima County Superior Court for Conspiracy to Assist a Criminal 18 Syndicate, Theft, and Filing a False Document, with a value of $100,000.01 or more. Plaintiff 19 seeks immediate release from prison and money damages.

20 Improper Defendants

21 Prosecutors are absolutely immune from liability for their conduct in “initiating a 22 prosecution and in presenting the State’s case” insofar as that conduct is “intimately
23 associated with the judicial phase of the criminal process.” Buckley v. Fitzsimmons, 509
24 U.S. 259, 270 (1993) (citing Imbler v. Pachtman, 424 U.S. 409, 430 (1976)); Burns v. Reed, 500
25 U.S. 478, 486 (1991) (quoting Imbler, 424 U.S. at 430-43); Ashelman v. Pope, 793 F.2d 1072, 26 1076 (9th Cir. 1986). Accordingly, Defendants Evans and LaWall must be dismissed for 27 failure to state a claim.

Judges are absolutely immune from suits for damages for their judicial acts except when they are taken "in the clear absence of all jurisdiction." Stump v. Sparkman, 435 U.S. 349, 356-357 (1978); Ashelman, 793 F.2d at 1075. An act is "judicial" when it is a function normally performed by a judge and the parties dealt with the judge in his or her judicial capacity. Stump, 435 U.S. at 362; Crooks v. Maynard, 913 F.2d 699, 700 (9th Cir. 1990). In this case, Plaintiff challenges actions taken by the judge presiding over his criminal proceedings. Presiding over a criminal case is a function normally performed by a judge and Plaintiff dealt with the judge named in this suit in his judicial capacity. Plaintiff makes no colorable allegations that the judge named in the Complaint acted outside of his jurisdiction. Accordingly, Defendant Browning must be dismissed from this action for failure to state a claim.

Similarly, members of a grand jury are absolutely immune from suit because, like a judge, they must "exercise a discretionary judgment on the basis of evidence presented to them." Imbler, 424 U.S. at 423 n.20. Accordingly, Defendants Members of Grand Jury will be dismissed from this action.

Finally, under the Eleventh Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, a state or state agency may not be sued in federal court without its consent. Pennhurst State School and Hosp. v. Halderman, 465 U.S. 89, 100 (1984); Taylor v. List, 880 F.2d 1040, 1045 (9th Cir. 1989). Furthermore, "a state is not a 'person' for purposes of section 1983. Defendant State of Arizona will therefore be dismissed.

Failure to State a Claim

Plaintiff's complaint seeking damages for wrongful prosecution is also premature because his conviction has never been reversed, expunged or otherwise invalidated. The Supreme Court has held:

[I]n order to recover damages for allegedly unconstitutional conviction or imprisonment, or for other harm caused by actions whose unlawfulness would render a conviction or sentence invalid, a . . . plaintiff must prove that the conviction or sentence has been reversed on direct appeal, expunged by executive order, declared invalid by a state tribunal authorized to make such determination, or called into question by a federal court's issuance of a writ

1 of habeas corpus, 28 U.S.C. § 2254. A claim for damages bearing that 2 relationship to a conviction or sentence that has not been so invalidated is not cognizable[.]

3 Heck v. Humphrey, 512 U.S. 477, 486-7 (1994) (emphasis in original) (footnote omitted).

4 Therefore, when a state prisoner seeks damages in a suit alleging an 5 unconstitutional conviction or imprisonment, the district court must consider whether a 6 judgment in favor of the Plaintiff would necessarily imply the invalidity of his conviction
 7 or sentence. Id. If it does, the complaint must be dismissed if the conviction or sentence 8 has not already been invalidated. In this case, Plaintiff explicitly alleges both that his 9 conviction was invalid and that it has not been overturned, reversed, or declared invalid.
 10 Accordingly, Plaintiff's claims must be dismissed.

11 To the extent that Plaintiff seeks the invalidation of his sentence, or any relief which 12 would result in immediate or speedier release, his exclusive remedy is a petition for habeas 13 corpus.<sup>1</sup> Preiser v. Rodriguez, 411 U.S. 475, 488-90 (1973).

14 Dismissal Without Leave to Amend

15 Because the Court is convinced that the deficiencies in the Complaint cannot be 16 cured by amendment, see Noll v. Carlson, 809 F.2d 1446, 1448 (9th Cir. 1987) (citing 17 Broughton v. Cutter Lab., 622 F.2d 458, 460 (9th Cir. 1980)), the Court's dismissal of the 18 Complaint will be without leave to amend, and the Court will order that the action be 19 dismissed and judgment entered.

20 Motions

21 As all of the pending motions in this case were filed before the Court completed 22

23 <sup>1</sup>Plaintiff should note that a prisoner attacking his state conviction must exhaust state 24 remedies before a federal court will entertain a petition for writ of habeas corpus. Rose v. Lundy, 25 455 U.S. 509 (1982); Szeto v. Rushen, 709 F.2d 1340 (9th Cir. 1983). The federal court will not 26 entertain a petition for writ of habeas corpus unless each and every issue has been exhausted. Rose, 27 455 U.S. at 521-22. "[E]xcept in habeas petitions in life-sentence or capital cases, claims of Arizona 28 state prisoners are exhausted for purposes of federal habeas once the Arizona Court of Appeals has ruled on them." Swoopes v. Sublett, 196 F.3d 1008, 1010 (9th Cir. 1999). The failure to exhaust subjects a habeas petitioner to dismissal. Gutierrez v. Griggs, 695 F.2d 1195 (9th Cir. 1983).

1 statutory screening of Plaintiff's Complaint, these motions are premature and, in light of the 2 Court's dismissal, are moot. These motions will be denied as moot.

7 shall enter judgment accordingly;
